

"Members' Experience of Taking Certification to Market in EMEA"

On 8 Mar 2016, 26 CEEdMA Europe members and guests from 20 companies attended a workshop on "Members' Experience of Taking Certification to Market in EMEA" at the offices of Assima in the City of London.

Following a presentation by CompTIA on their experiences of over 20 years in delivering vendor-neutral certification tests, we then heard from Amazon Web Services, Avid, Dell, EMC, SAP, ServiceNow and VMware.

You can access these workshop materials on the CEEdMA website:
